12.03-1L

Waterways and wetlands

Strategies

Protect the quality of waterways, including wetlands, from the impacts of development and subdivision by incorporating setbacks and water sensitive urban design.

Protect connectivity between waterways and wetlands.

Avoid development that isolates wetlands.

Avoid development that results in the drainage of waterways and wetlands.

Provide fencing to waterways and wetlands where needed to control unrestricted access by livestock or people.