Landscapes

Strategies

Retain open and rural views, particularly from main road corridors and tourist routes.

Increase endemic planting to emphasise natural features such as creeks.

Protect ridgelines from visual intrusion by development and vegetation removal.

Retain existing endemic trees and understorey.

Retain views of geological features such as volcanic cones, craters and lakes from the Princes Highway and other main roads.

Discourage quarrying or excavation on geological features.