Land use compatibility

Strategies

Ensure compatibility between the industrial needs of timber processing and neighbouring land uses.

Support the growth of timber processing operations where they can manage their off-site impacts to minimise detrimental effects on the environment and local amenity.