Integrated water management

Strategies

Encourage the establishment of reticulated sewerage systems in townships.

Support septic tank systems and alternative waste treatment systems in areas where sewerage systems are not available.